This year as we registered we were met by many faces. Students, teachers, administrators, cooks, and bus drivers all were present in abundance. Some of these people were familiar, others unknown. Some were filled with anxiety over the coming year, others with confidence. We reacquainted ourselves with old friends, made new ones and remembered those not present.

As the year progressed we saw our friends in widely varied attire. The tall furry hats of the band contrasted with the hard smooth hats of the football players. The girls had hair down to their waists or neatly cropped in a shag. The boys' attire ranged from levis and a T-shirt to a wild tui tie.

Although the dresses and hairstyles told the fashions of our year, the faces told the story. No fashions or hairstyles can express the joy of beating Orem nor can they tell the sorrow of graduation. They can't express anticipation of a coming dance nor can they show that feeling for a special person. Only faces can tell our story of our school and its kaleidoscope of faces.

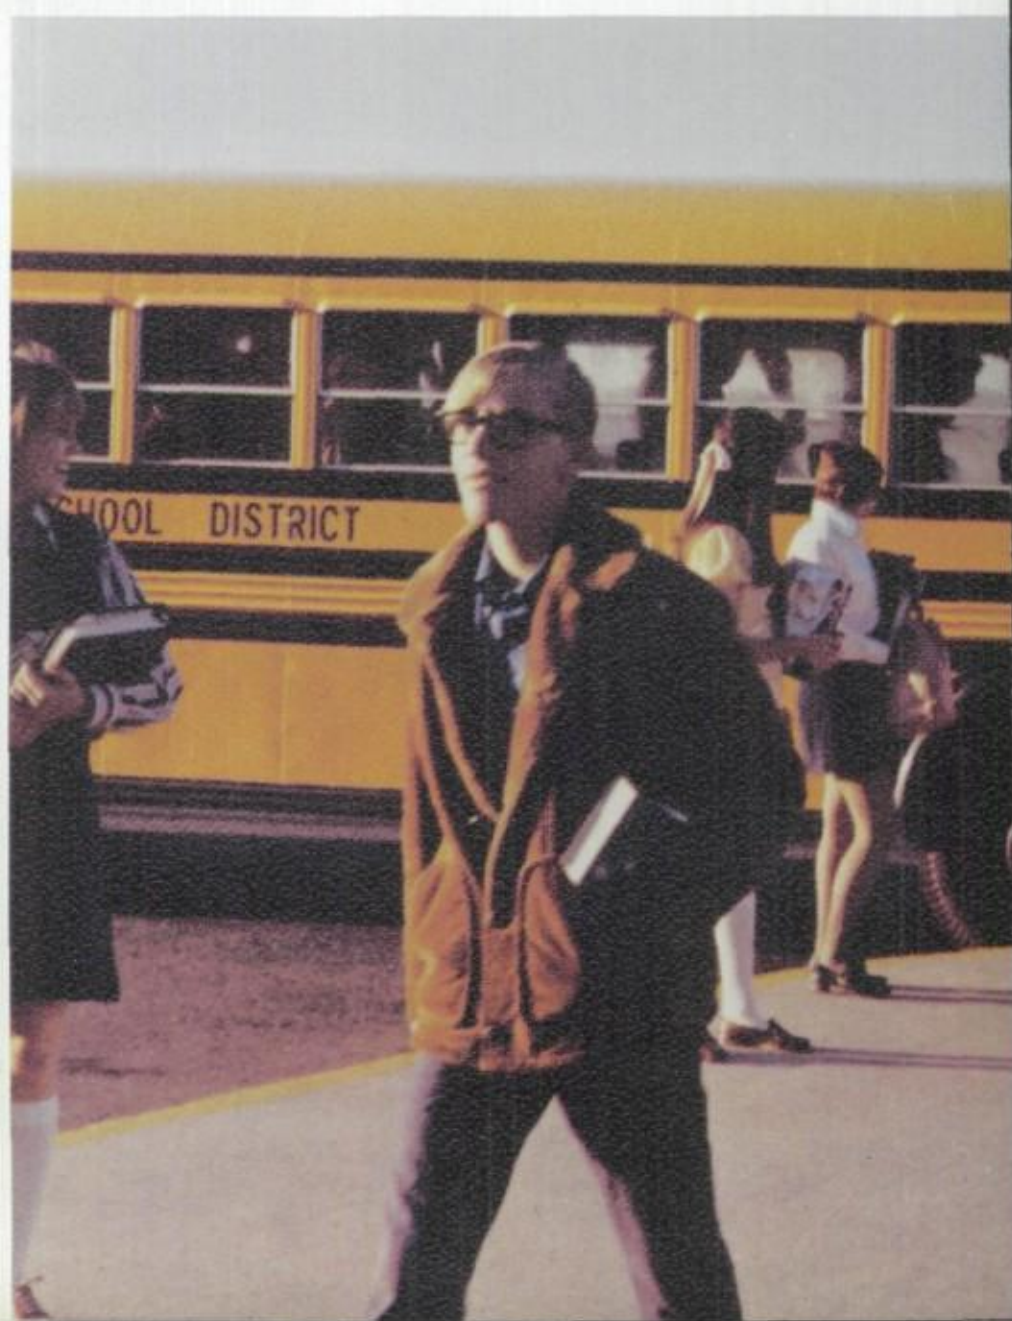

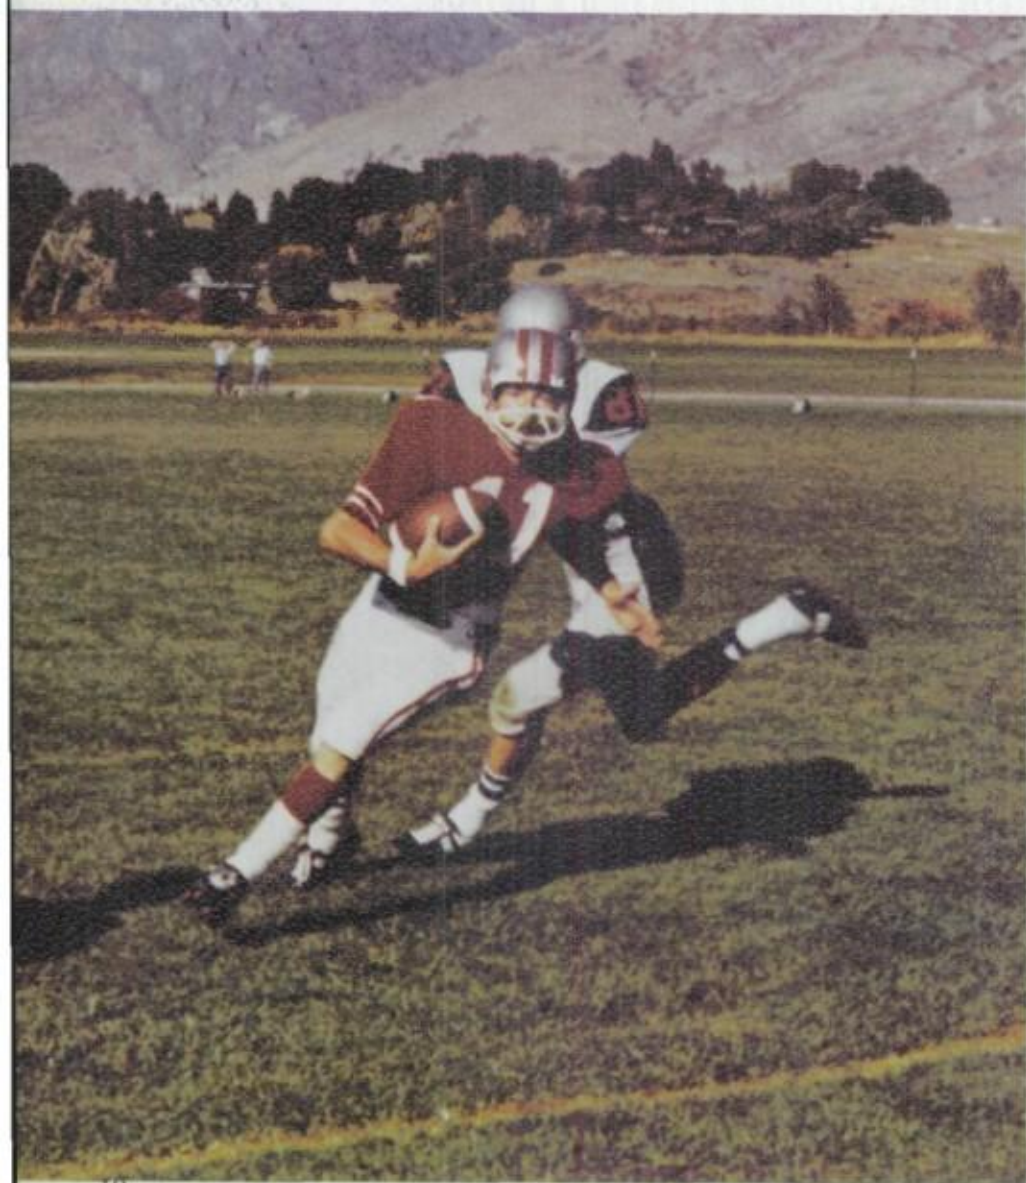

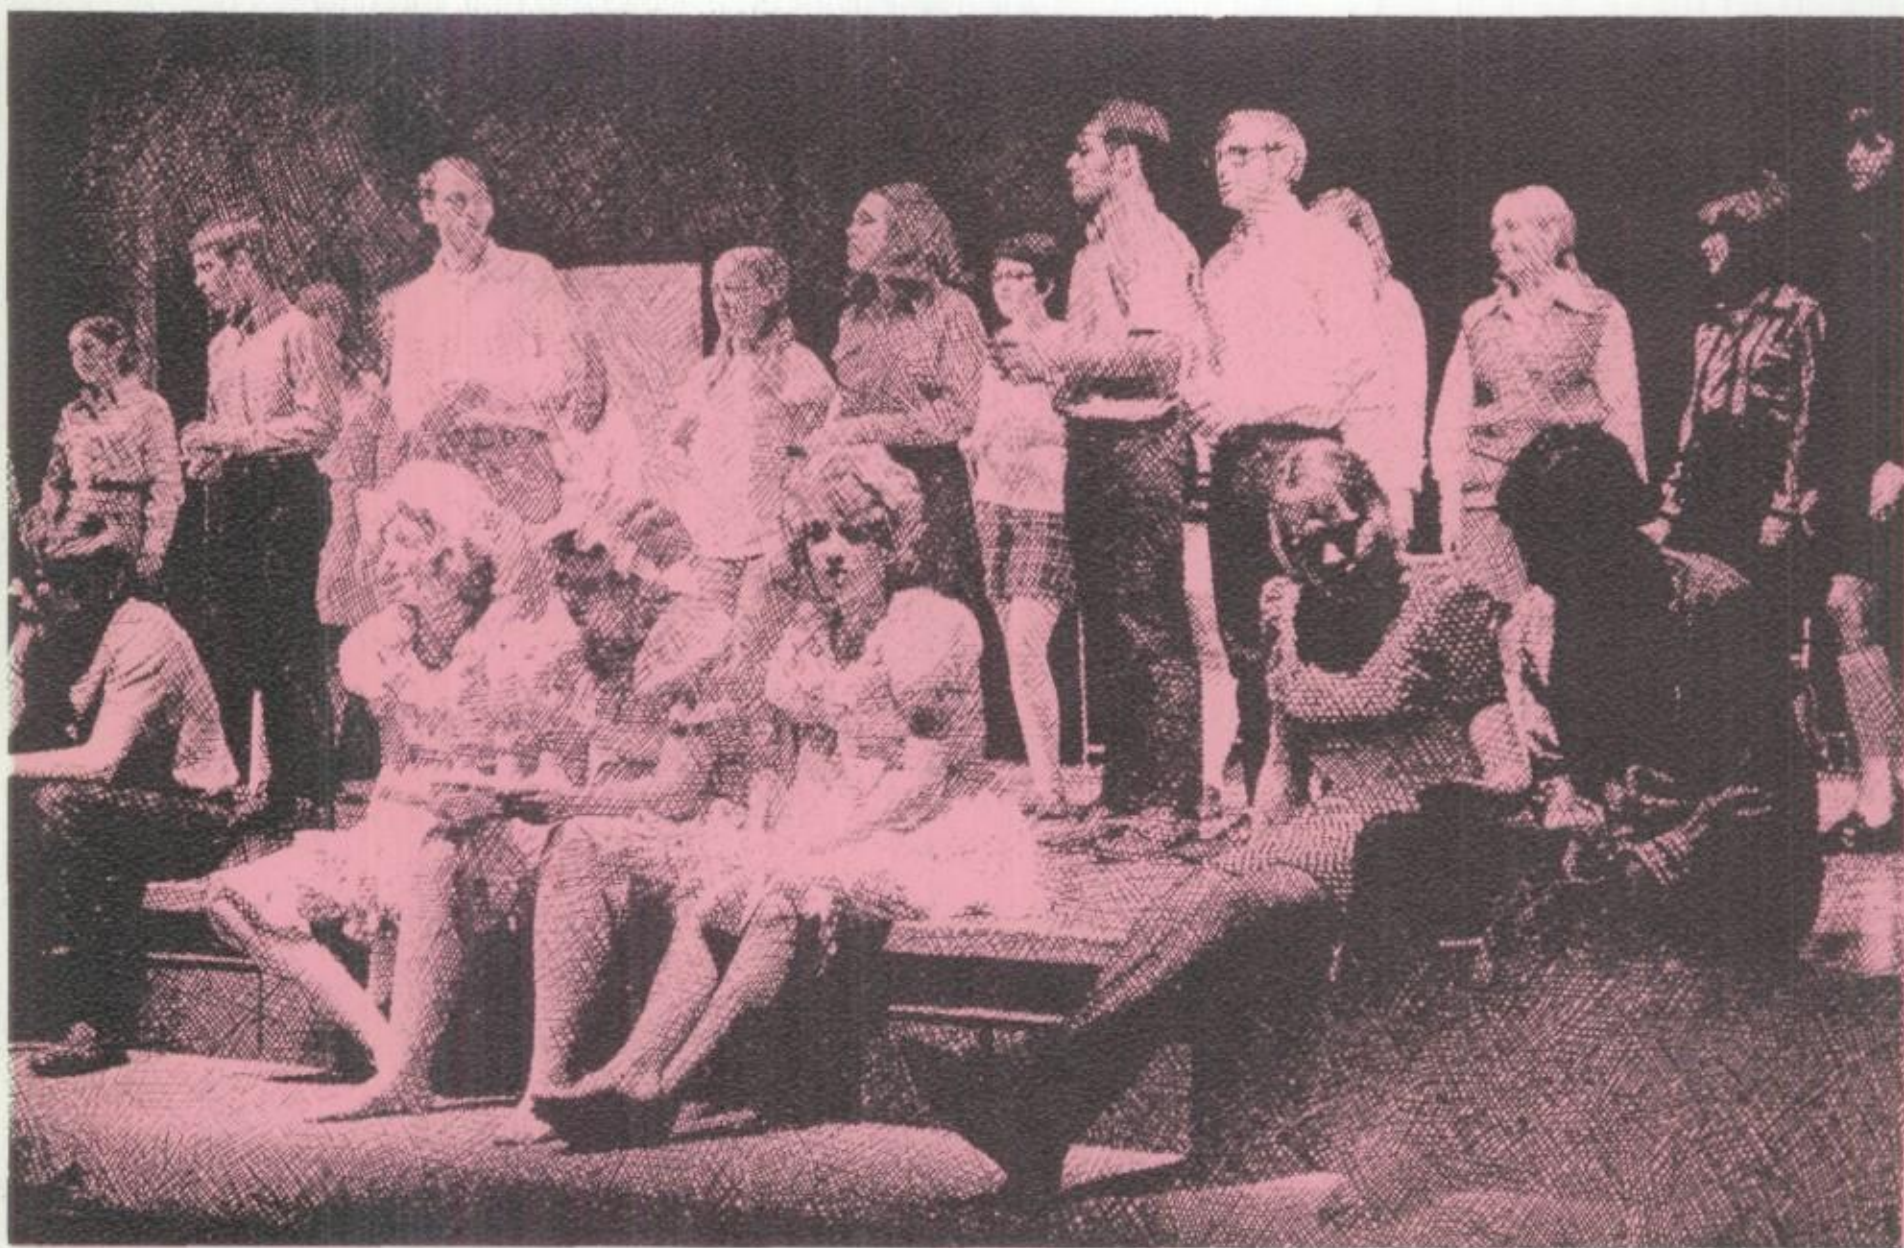

Student Life

We're from A. F. And we couldn't be prouder. Our studentbody portrayed the enthusiasm and spirit felt throughout the season. We participated in various activities and our emotions were expressed by cheering, crying and yelling.

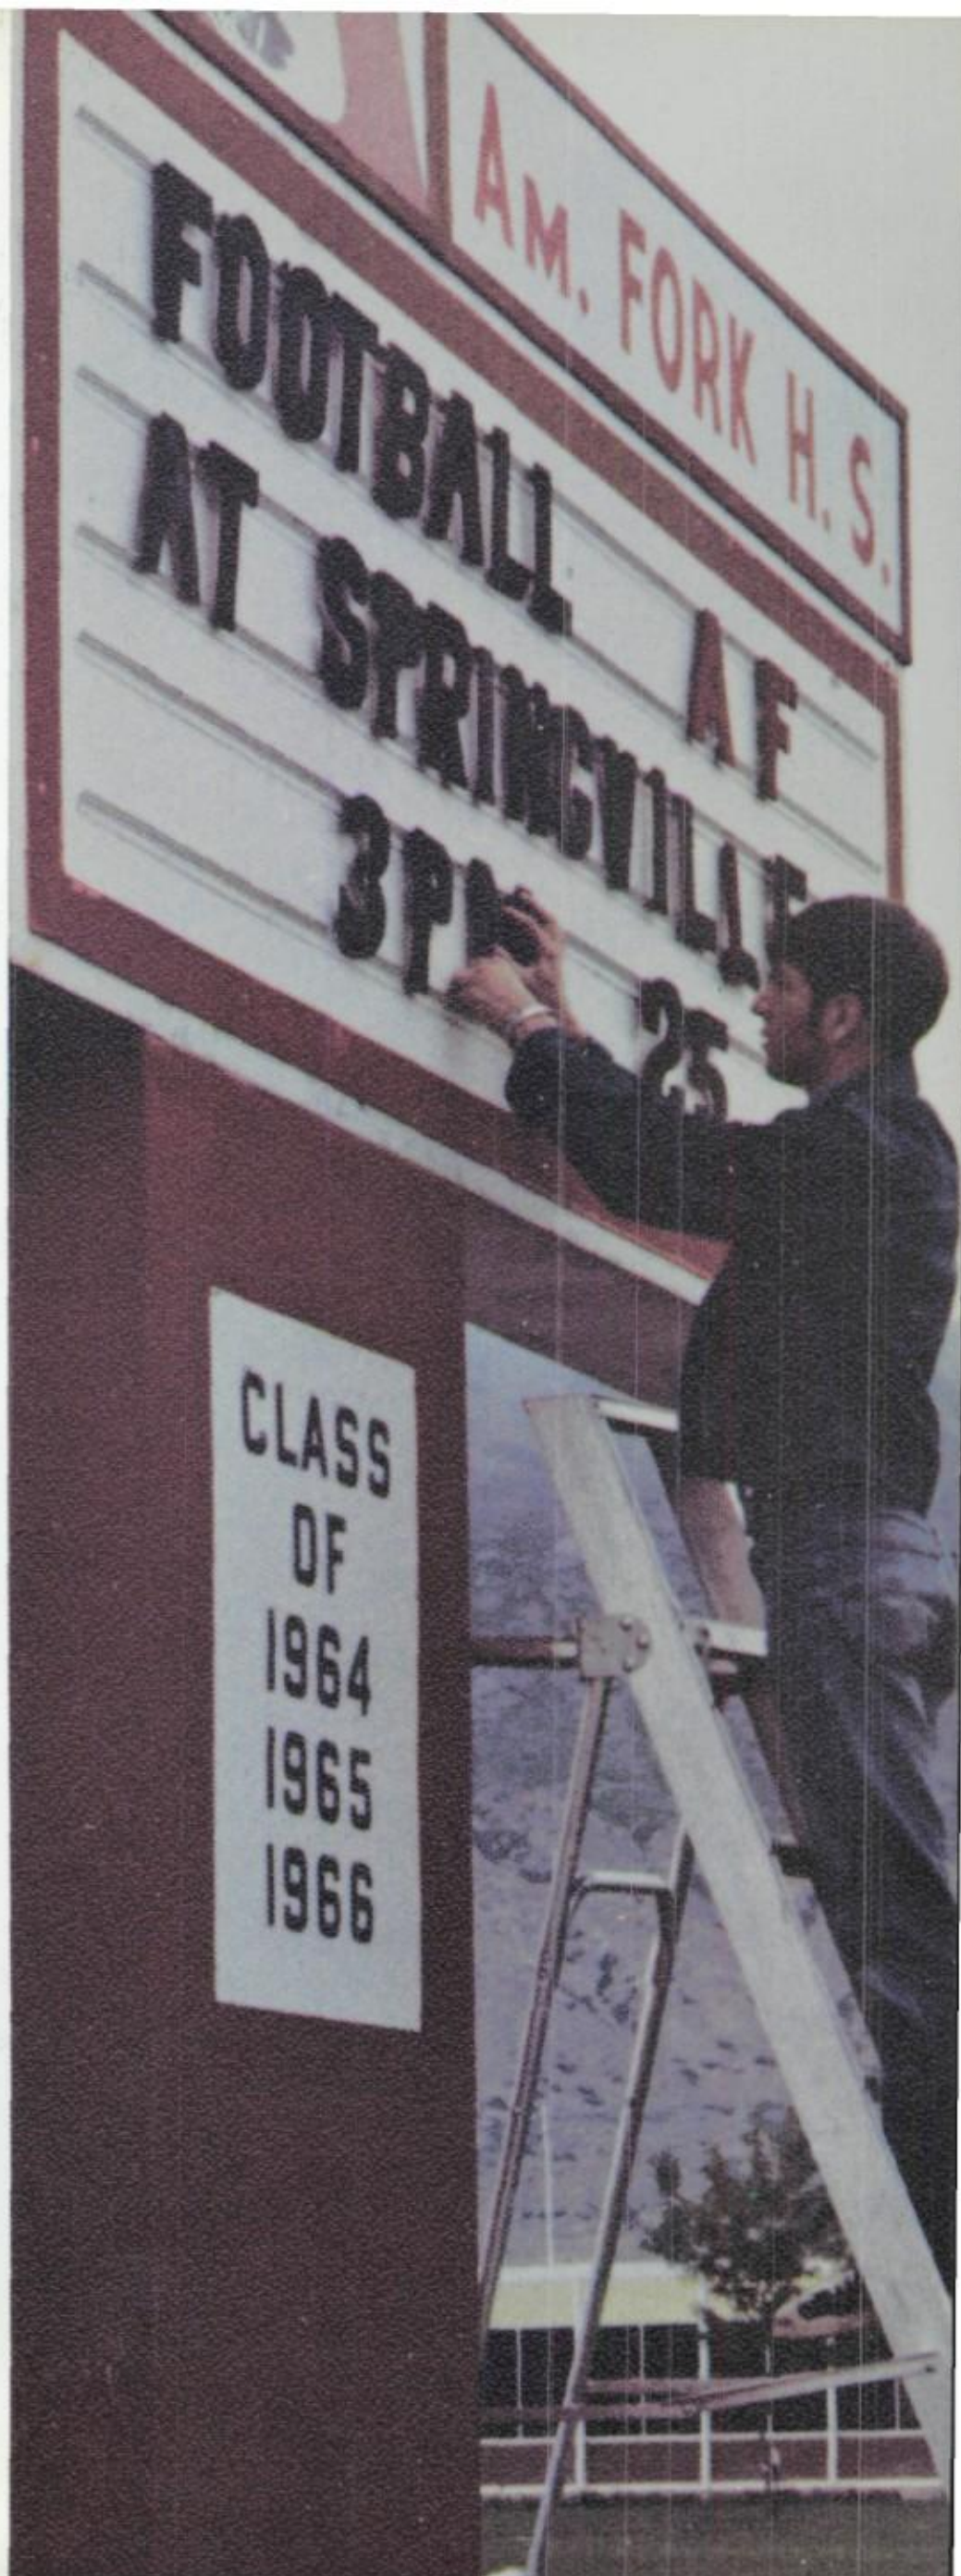

We're from A. F. and we couldn't be prouder. If you can't hear us now we'll yell a little louder.

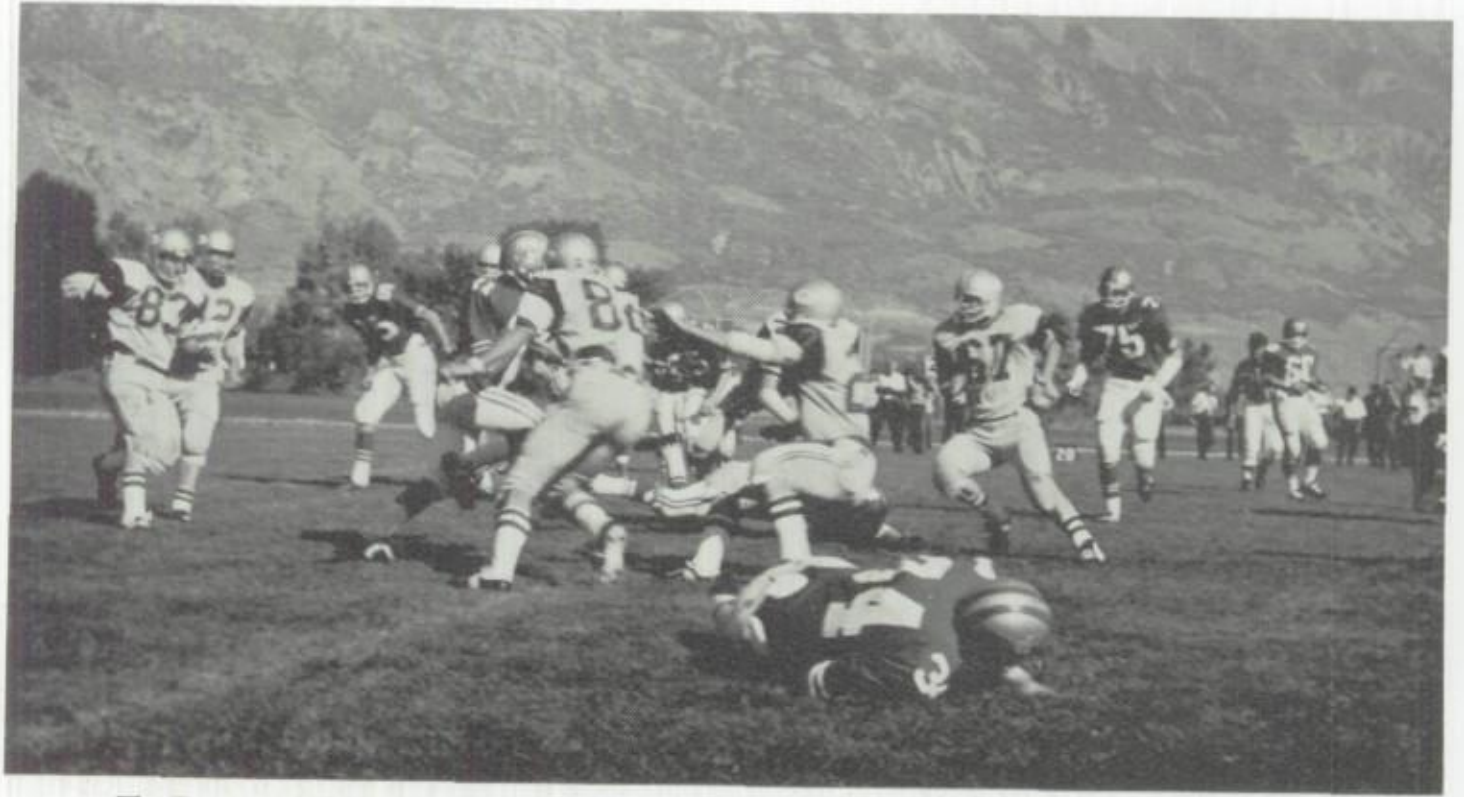

Students Returned Ready To Go

In late August the school swarmed with 855 students; 286 Sophomores, 283 Juniors, and 266 Seniors. These first days were marked with the usual activities, registration, renewing old acquaintances and the like. Dissatisfied students flooded the counselors with requests for transfers to different classes. We held home room elections, which formed our student council. For the first year vending machines, and all their implications, were introduced. We stuffed our stomachs with candy and our minds with knowledge. We were determined to have a great year.

Cavemen Ate Up

The Dons tried but they couldn't stop the rushing, blocking and passing of the mighty Cavemen.

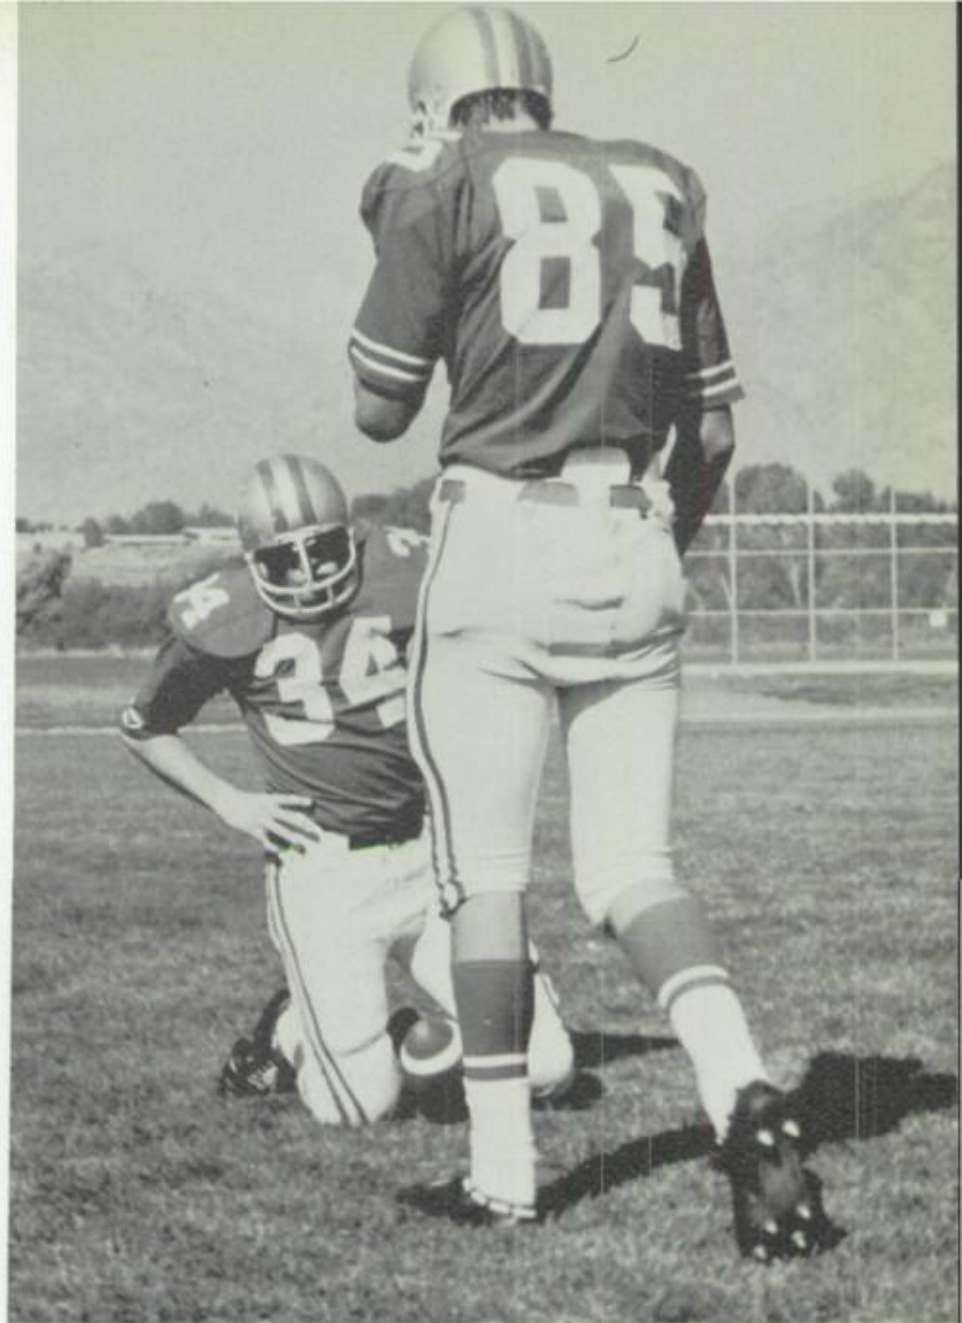

The lunchroom was decorated in spanish decor to set the mood for the day of the game. Also, they served tacos so we could "eat up Spanish."

Spanish

The Sophomores produced one of the more witty and original floats for the parade through town to the pep rally.

The football players kept their minds on the game while the rest of us cheered and screamed.

Homecoming was climaxed by the game. Only those attending can imagine the thrill, excitement and suspense of this game. Our hopes for State were high and we grew more confident as the game progressed.

The game ended and we were ecstatic at the win. Yet, we were a little sad; this was the end of Homecoming '70.

Homecoming October 3, 1971

Homecoming '70 was a big success with many activities, including: Carnival (Kissing Booth), Parade, Pep Rally, and a Bonfire. Then on Friday we had our assembly, immediately followed by the game when victory "DONNED" on us. We concluded our homecoming as we danced to the music of the Gents.

Pep Assemblies Were On The Move

The Pep Assemblies were really on the move. They spirited the studentbody and the team into a high peak of enthusiasm.

The cheerleaders, whose task it was to plan these assemblies did a fantastic job. Not only were these assemblies interesting but they got the entire school involved.

The spirit was kept high this year by the temperature gauge during football season and by climbing the ladder to State during basketball.

The team was shown by these assemblies how solidly the studentbody was behind them.

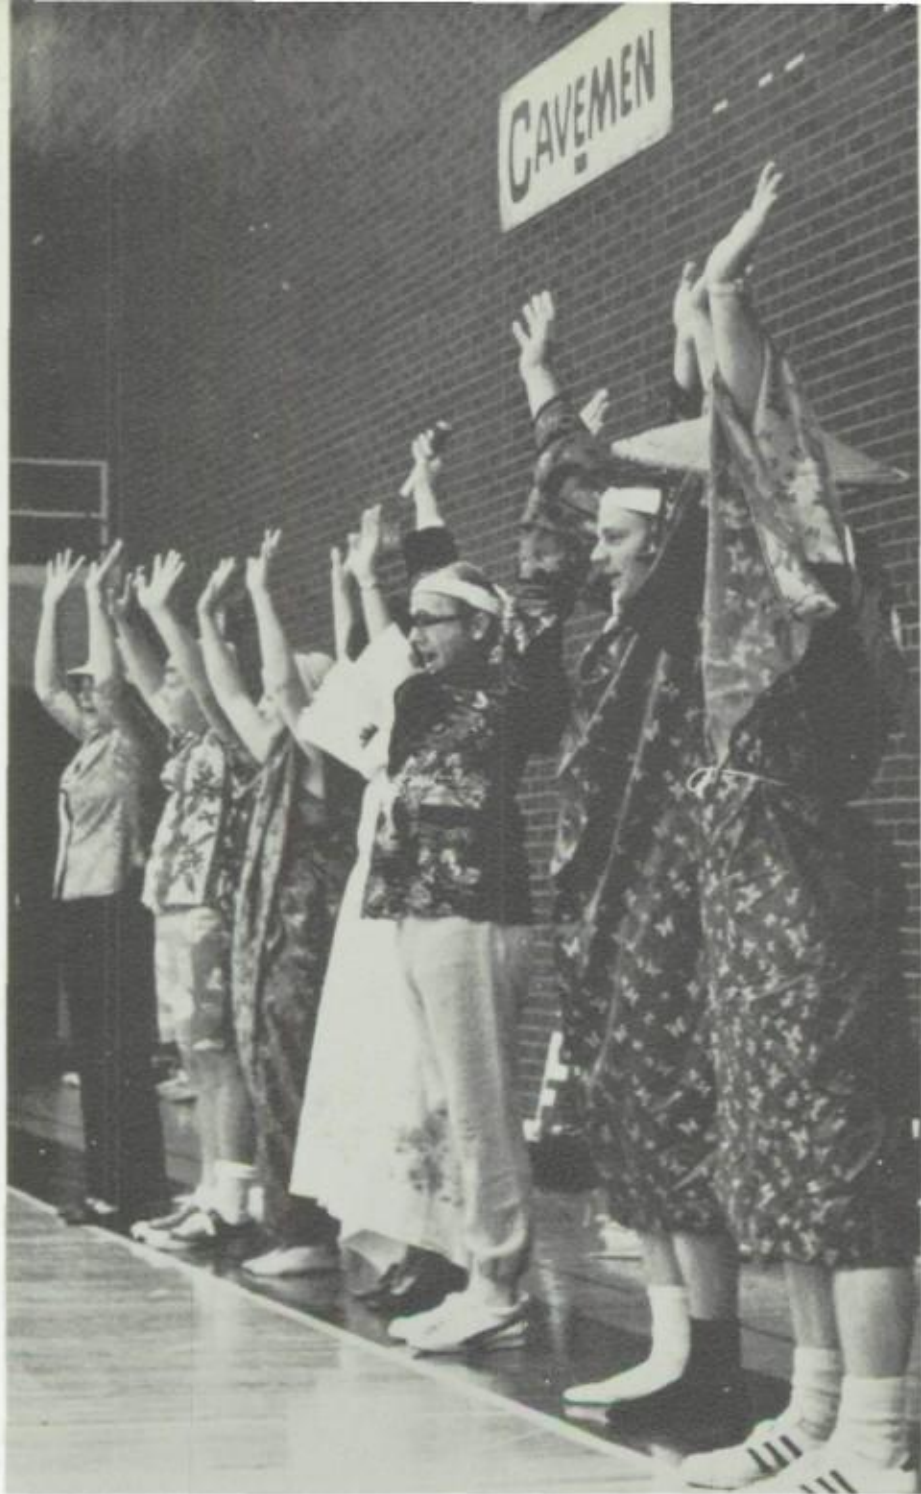

Glenda, like the other five cheerleaders, jumped and kicked to urge the studentbody to greater school spirit.

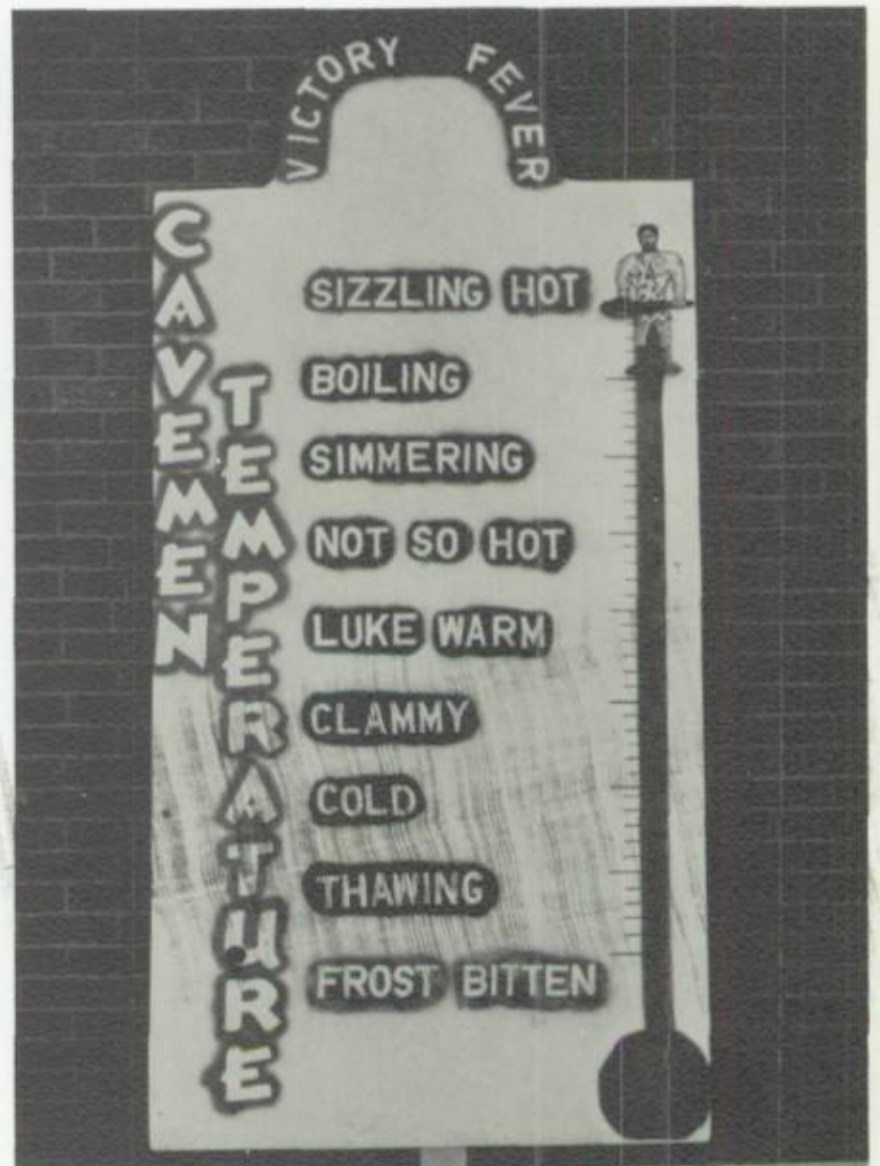

Mr. Pehrson was just one of the many excellent pep speakers we had during the year.

Even the teachers got into the act. A group of teachers, led by our famous Mark Farrer (3rd from right) got the studentbody involved by leading the famous yell, "Hey, Louie."

Our spirit temperature was continually being read by the giant thermometer.

The Pep Club supplied not only yell power, but they performed many original and cute marches.

Make-up does wonders for Doug.

Many hours of work were put in to make the setting the best.

The musical was really great this year. "Little Mary Sunshine" opens as a group of rangers led by Big Jim hunts for the deadly Indian, Yellow Feather. Mary Potts, the heroine, is a blood relation to this same Yellow Feather. Romance, chills, and laughs were in store for the remainder of the play.

The school play was a huge success. "The Rainmaker," by N. Richard Nash is a play that states, "you are what you think you are." When the Rainmaker comes to the Curry home, all are a bit skeptical. Gradually, he convinces everyone that he really is a rainmaker not just a con man and that if you believe in something it really can happen.

The play was enjoyed by all and was performed superbly.

Assemblies Provide Entertainment

The school year started off with the Hello Assembly. Then, the alumni participated with the students in the Homecoming Assembly which has been tradition at A. F. High. October brought the Halloween Assembly. A favorite act was the wild tour-de-force in ghoulishness with Dalyn Greenwood as Fangin, Jared Cornell as Bill Claude, and Horace, the school's biology skeleton, was the special guest star. The Christmas Assembly featured Santa who paid the High School a special visit to find the real meaning of Christmas. Entertaining on the Patriotic Assembly were the radio show, featuring the news, weather, movie stars, photographers, Aunt Jemima, Lemmon sisters, and a choral group; and the pie on Abraham Lincoln's face, not to mention the mess on the curtain. Tryouts were held, and the traveling assembly went to Payson, much to the pleasure of the Payson student-body; and we were entertained by the Payson students.

Gwen Johnson, Colleen McTague, and Cheryl Chestnut gave up summer pleasures with the return of school.

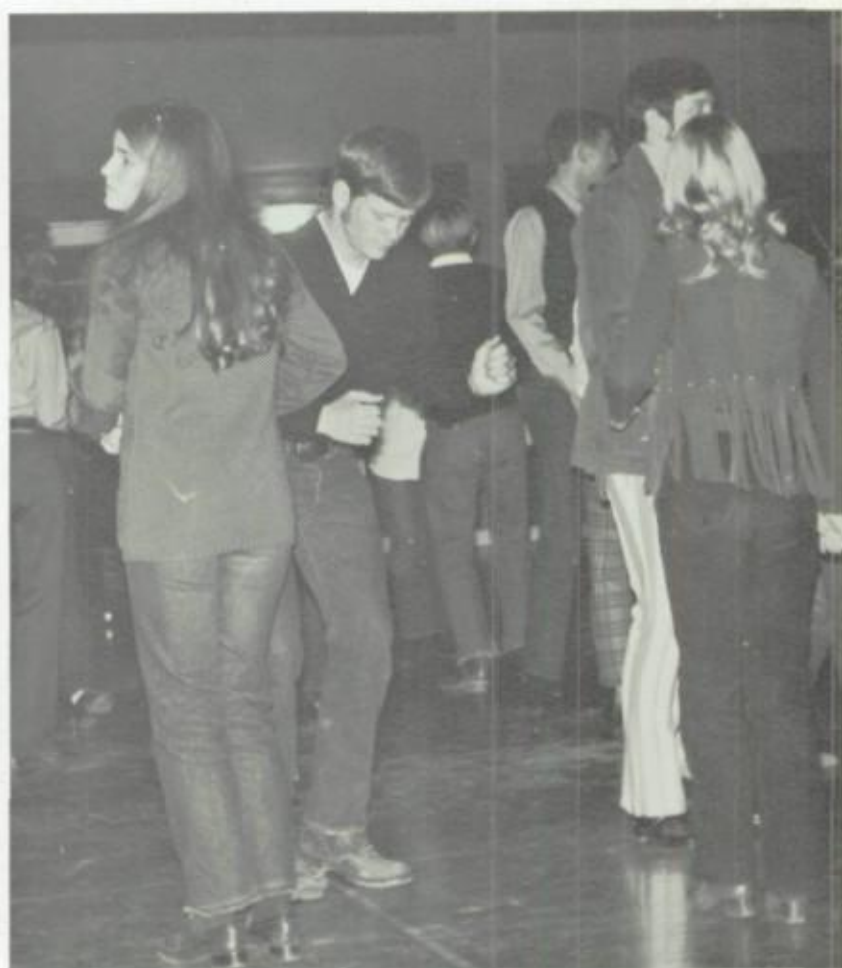

Six Christmas dolls sang for the Christmas Assembly.

Senior Hop Was Exciting

Secret Love

HOP CO-CHAIRMEN: Jerry Varney and Shannon Savage.

On November 25, 1970, the Senior Hop was held. Since this was the senior's last dance the class went all out to make it the biggest dance of the year.

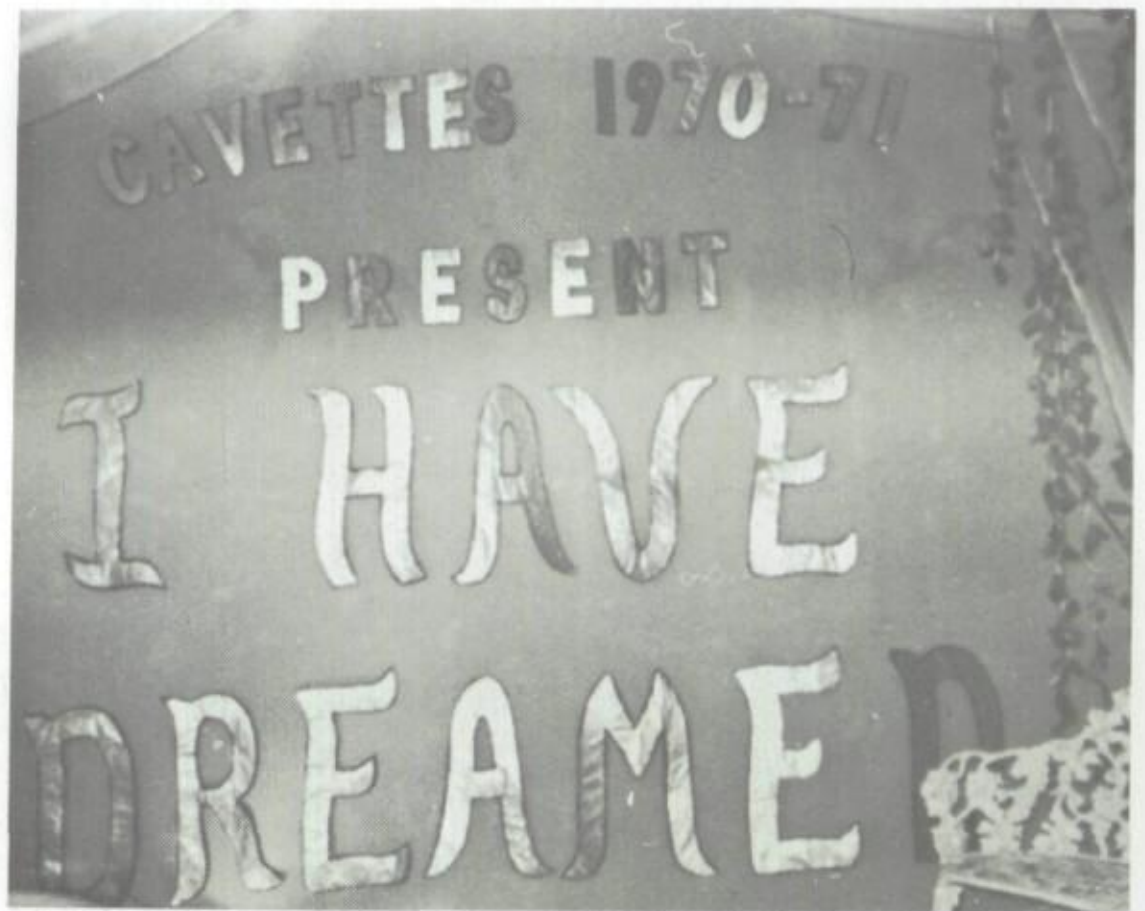

Starting the day was the assembly where a shy librarian finally admits that she has a "Secret Love." Finally the dance started and all the work was ended. The decorations, based upon a Spanish style setting, were in red, white, and black. The Seniors performed the Hopenade to the haunting strains of the theme song, "Secret Love." The Senior Hop was a dance that would always be remembered by all who attended.

Cavettes Dance To "I Have Dreamed"

"The Pep Club Formal was beautiful!" This exclamation was heard from all who went. The theme and song, sung by the Cavettes during the floor show, was "I Have Dreamed." The decorations were particularly striking and fit in well with the mood of the evening. The ceiling, done with napkins, gave the dance a dream-like appearance. The mural was a beautiful river scene, and the colors of gold and green set off the mural and the dance beautifully. The chairman for the dance was Pam Durrant. The committee heads in charge of the pictures, mural, band, and the decorations on the walls and ceiling, were Nancy Burch, Connie Sorensen, Wendy Duncan, Denise Allridge, Rebecca Smith, Kristine Anderson, and Joye Gaye Hadlock. The dance was held December 12.

Entrance to the dance announced the theme of the formal.

The ceiling of napkins enhanced the dream-like atmosphere.

Coeds Select Preferred Men

This year, the Cavettes and the girls of American Fork High chose three outstanding young men as the most preferred. Chosen for their friendliness and character were Max Ditlevsen, senior; Kerry Christensen, junior; and Mark Sykes, sophomore. Also, it was most fitting to choose Bruce Bean as the most admired for the fine character he has displayed.

PROMENADE CO-CHAIRMAN: Linda Walker and Vard Pulley.

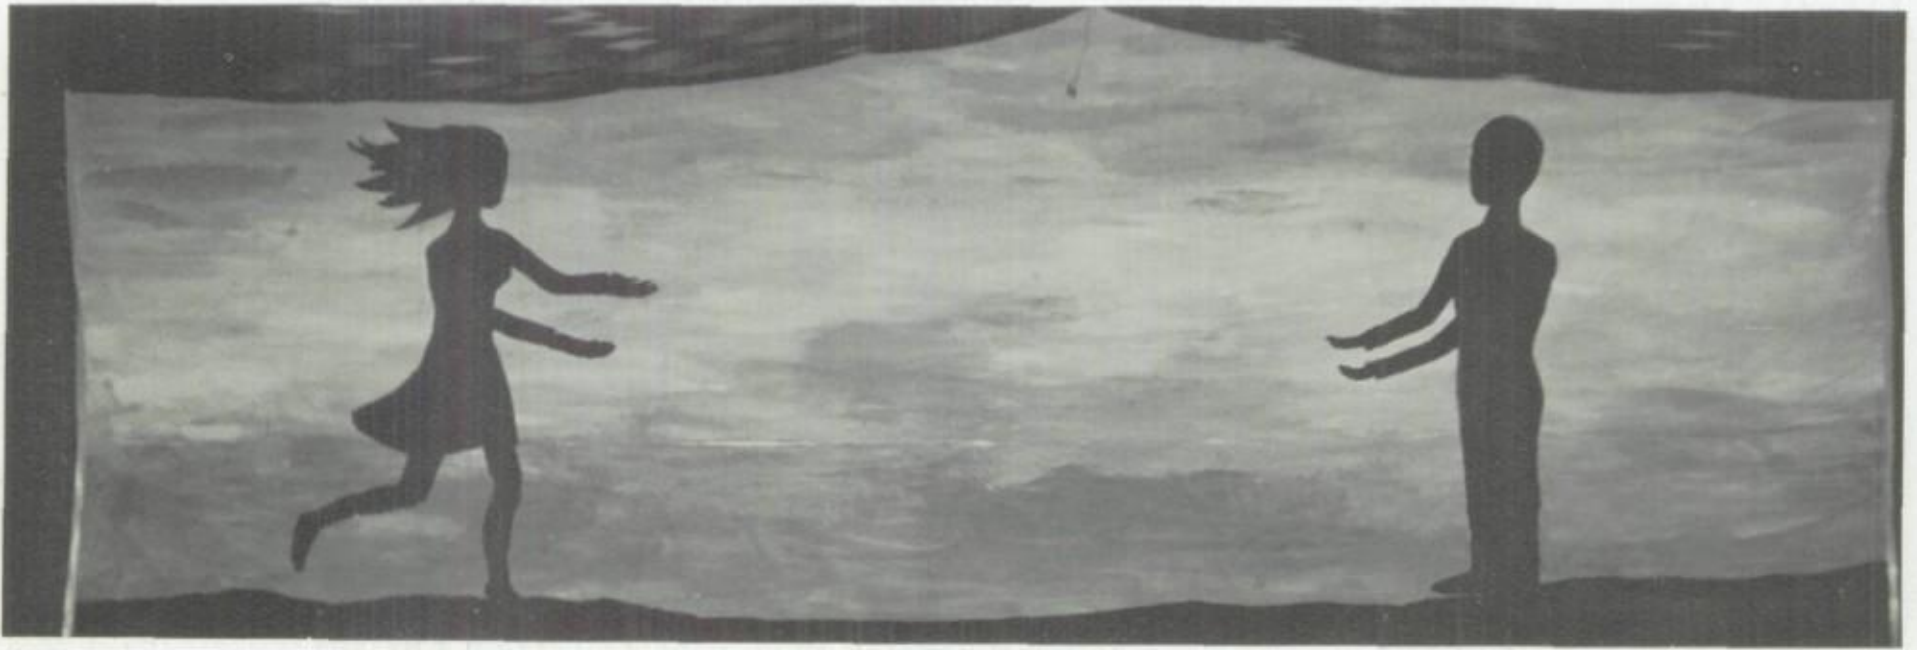

April 2nd was a day to remember, for it was the Junior Prom. The colors consisted of purple, pink and silver, which made some elaborate decorations. The assembly was written and directed by Colleen McTague. It was one of our best assemblies.

The dance started at 8:30 and ended at 11:30. The theme of the Junior Prom was Thee I Love. The advisors who helped and assisted were as follows: Stan Reid, Sandra Ferrin, Brenda Bensch, Venda Castleberry, Tom Crittenden, Annette Glenn, Gene Ingersoll, Evan Nelson, Moyle Parker. The Junior Prom was a never to be forgotten affair.

PROM CO-CHAIRMAN: Colleen Hansen and Stan Wiscombe.

Sophomore Slide Huge Success

Friday, March 19th was the night of all nights for the class of '73. It was the evening of the Sophomore Slide.

That night, the girls' gym was transformed into a wonderland of pink and red with the theme of "Hello, It's Me." The co-chairmen for the dance were Miriam Nash and Sandy Nicholes, the advisors were Ferril Sorenson, Theda Holindrake, Davis Knight, Don Mower, Mark Farrer, Roy Pehrson, Jay Allen, J. Von Bennett, and Wanda Jorgenson. The Slide Assembly was written by Roanna Roundy, Sophomore Program Chairman.

The FFA Royalty was chosen in March by the FFA Club. Seven girls were in competition where they each baked a cake and performed a talent number. The club officers then chose the royalty; Arlene, RaNae and Colleen. These girls then entered the state competition where they represented the American Fork FFA Chapter. Here they modeled a dress and Arlene Smith took 12th place.

Royalty Chosen By Club

Sports

Our high school was filled with the wonderful world of sports. During the year our school participated in many different areas: football, basketball, baseball, track and field. These sports let us release all of our excess energy and cheer. Also, from these competitions between schools, we learned school pride. We learned to hold our head up high in the face of defeat and how to be good winners, too.

At the first of the year, A. F. Cavemen weren't even ranked in the papers. At the end of the season, A. F. had six wins and two losses. The Cavemen beat Lehi, then Orem in shutout games; and Mr. Farrer ate his six year old cupcake. The Cavemen lost a real heart breaker to Payson which knocked them from first to third place in the region.

"Seldom do you see such a fine team as A. F. sitting on the sidelines when state tournament competition rolls around. The Cavemen truly had a fine football club," Joe Watts commented. Next year, the Cavemen won't sit on the sidelines, they'll take state!

Coach Ingersoll urges the team on.

"Catch me if you can!" Caveman taunts.

Anderson gains another first down for the Cavemen.

The basketball team took honors this year. Mr. Ingersoll, his first year as the basketball coach, led the team into state competition. The team and the school chuckles about the Spanish Fork Game, where the game was stopped for about ten minutes to look for a lost contact lens; and at the State Tournament, everyone remembers the big technical Bruce Bowen got on him. But the play the school will always remember best, was the long shot Steven Dean made at half-court to tie the A.F.-Orem basketball game in a close chiller. After all that work, it's a shame we weren't able to beat those Tigers! We are proud of our coach and the team for their hard work and honors they have brought to our school; and we are looking forward to another great year in '72.

Craig Excels In Swimming

Craig Chesnut swam for American Fork under the direction of Mark Farrer, his coach. He did very well in the swimming meets against tough competition.

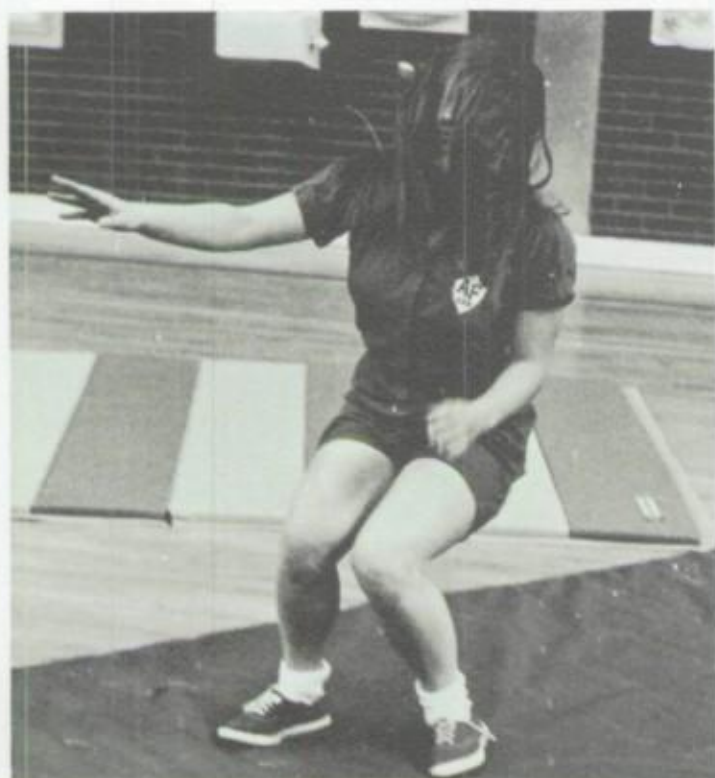

At Murray, he was edged out by another swimmer to take in the 200 meters freestyle. At Cottonwood, he took first in the 50 yard freestyle and the 100 yard backstroke.

Girls' Competitive Sports

Organizations

Organizations, although not directly connected with the six hour school day, have a very important part in the school. It is in these clubs that all the activities really take place. Parties, initiations, banquets, midnight decorating detail at an athlete's house are all part of club life.

This year the Spanish Club was involved in many activities which added extra enjoyment to everyday school life.

The opening social in September was conducted by the students who went to Mexico during the summer. They showed films of themselves in Mexico and told the many new experiences they enjoyed.

The club prepared a Mexican Dinner of Tacos, Enchiladas, and a beverage for their activity in October.

The American Fork High School Indian students presented an Indian Culture Night in which they displayed many everyday objects which showed the native sense of art.

At Christmas time, they enjoyed a social where games, refreshments, and White Elephant gifts were enjoyed.

The January and February meetings were combined into a festive evening at the El Azteca where they were joined by the Richfield High Spanish Club. They were entertained by a live Mexican Combo during dinner.

The closing social included the BYU drama, "Man of LaMancha" and dinner.

The Spanish Club officers were Royce Shelley, president; Jay Rhodes, vice-president; Annette Terry, secretary.

The Senior Girls' Association is a service and social organization. These girls served both the school and the community. They sponsored a record hop in December with Mr. Farrer as Disc Jockey. The proceeds from this dance together with donations from the student-body helped the Senior Girls' Association become a Sub for Santa and provide Christmas for a needy family. They also had an International Foods Party and a Christmas Party. Closing the year's activities was a girl's choice Sadie Hawkins Day Dance.

The officers were: Loretta Mills, president; Laurie Bishop, vice-president social; DiAnn Hutchinson, secretary-treasurer; Julie Rhodes, service.

Future Homemakers and Farmers

The Future Homemakers of America worked "Toward New Horizons" by developing skills in various activities such as a costume party, a Christmas breakfast, films, and a Homecoming float and booth. The officers this year were: Jolene Durrant, Marian Biggins, Debra Harvey, Rebecca Smith, Connie Lewis, Julie Matthews, Jody Buckner, and advisor, Renee Porter. The Future Farmers of America joined the FHA officers in planning a party and a dance sponsored by the two clubs. Mr. Gappmayer and officers Paul Kitchen, Jon Jonsson, Doug Richards, Steven Ault, Phil Hall, Joel Adamson, and Ray Coddington led the FFA in various activities, such as a Halloween dance, the State Fair, a banquet and choosing the FFA Sweetheart. Several members were able to attend the State Convention held in Salt Lake City.

DECA, (Distributive Education Club of America) used the practical application of economic ideas. Students attended class each day to learn the theories of our economy and our place in the trade of the world. Members of DECA wrote research papers on the various phases of America's manufacturing. Students were placed in jobs at various business establishments in our community and were dismissed at two o'clock each day to go to work.

DECA exemplifies the new trend in education to teach practical subjects and prepare students for life.

Under the direction of Arlo Shelley, advisor; and Kirk Magleby, president; the National Honor Society members tutored many students in different subjects. This program let the tutors learn as well as the students they were teaching.

The NHS held two initiations this year. To be eligible a student must be carrying three academic subjects and have a B average.

The National Honor Society is based on four words: Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. Before a student is permitted in the club he must exemplify these four characteristics.

The Future Physician Club, under the direction of Carl Ingersoll, is made up primarily of students interested in medicine and related fields. This provides an excellent insight into these fields and gives the students a chance to see medicine in practice.

Throughout the past year the group has been involved in many activities. They went on a tour of the University of Utah Medical Center and the State Training School. Highlighting the year were several lectures given by doctors practicing in Utah County. The social part of this group was filled by many fun and exciting parties.

The Colorguard, under the direction of Gene Ingersoll, advisor; presented the colors at the games and pep assemblies. The colorguard was well represented this year by dedicated and enthusiastic girls whose pride in our school started the games out right. These girls practiced many hours to make their marches come out right. Working especially hard this past summer, the colorguard marched in thirteen parades along with the school band. This group was one of the most active and enthusiastic groups and continually performed its job well.

The Pep Club boosted the school's spirit in many activities. The Cavettes, dressed in their cute uniforms of red and white, marched with the band during Homecoming using red, white, and blue streamers. They also did routines using the jazz ensemble and drums. The moods varied from the Real West, to the Roaring Twenties, to a patriotic march with the Pleasant Grove Pep Club. They also did a unique march in the dark using fluorescent gloves. The officers, Marsha Murdock, president; Lorena Pratt, vice-president; Martha Robinson, secretary; Annette Miller, historian; Janet Parker, and Debbie Nielson, pep committee; Anne Richards, and Mary Ann Robertson, dress committee; and advisor, Ardena Beck, made a successful year for the group and AF High.

Third row: Susan Larson, Dorian Bailey, Ilene Adams, Joy Day, Miss Beck, advisor; Sylvia Brady, Teresa May, Trudy Marcon, Marcia Anderson.

The Girls' Athletic Association is for girls interested in sports. This group is involved in such sports as softball, basketball, volleyball, badminton, bowling, gymnastics and track and field events.

This group also had several parties during the year. The first party involved the mothers of the girls.

The officers were: Ann Slater, president; Loretta Mills, vice-president; Karen Carroll, recorder; Jan Smith, secretary; Joan DeYoung, reporter; Anna Begay, senior representative; Sherri Fugal, junior representative; Gayleen Kaneko, sophomore representative.

The Ski Club was a newly organized club this year. But even though it was new it had a large following of ski enthusiasts.

Although this group is not directly connected with the school, its members proudly represent the high school while on the slopes.

Officers were: Craig King, president; Kate Carroll, secretary; Liza Belmont, treasurer.

The Lettermen Club was composed of a group of boys that worked long and hard in the various athletic fields and was one of the most active and successful that the school has had for many years. Who else but the Lettermen would dress up and become Ravettes and support the Donkey Basketball game and the State Basketball Tournament. This group of dedicated and enthusiastic boys are truly representative of the American Fork High School Cavemen.

Absent: Bruce Block, Sherry Devey, Dalyn Greenwood, John Heiner, Vicki Warenski.

The A Cappella Choir was one of the best American Fork High School has had in years. They have performed in many concerts during the school year. To name a few: the Fall Concert, Christmas Concert, Jazz Concert, special PTA programs, Region IV Festival, and the Spring Concert.

The A Cappella has studied and performed a large variety of music; popular, madrigals, patriotic and master choruses. Some of the songs performed so well by this chorus included titles such as these; "The Last Words of David," "Both Sides Now," "The Power of Music," "Light Everlasting," "Yesterday," and "Rock-a-My-Soul."

The band is actually three groups in one. During the summer months they are formed into a marching band and perform in many different parades all over the state, the highlight of which is the big "Days of '47 Parade" in Salt Lake.

During football and basketball seasons a portion of the band is involved in the pep band. This group plays numbers for the studentbody to cheer to.

Combining these two groups forms the concert band. This group had several concerts during the year and traveled to the elementary schools to spark future musicians.

Excelled

The orchestra, though small in quantity, is large in quality. The orchestra performed for the school musical and did an excellent job. They also received a trophy from George Frandsen for a job well done.

The Jazz Ensemble was comprised of several students who were willing to spend extra time before and after school to practice. This group presented for the first time a jazz concert during the winter. It has also participated in several assemblies and concerts.

Administration

The administration is the learning power in our school. From this group of dedicated people we gain the knowledge to take us through our future life whether it be college or career. This group not only includes faculty but staff help, so while the faculty was teaching us, the staff gave us a pleasant environment in which to learn. We not only gained knowledge, but we learned how to become better men and women through the examples set by the administration.

Administration

As I look back upon the school year we are completing, I am sincerely pleased with all that has been accomplished by our studentbody. It becomes a yearly challenge for each group of students to keep up the traditions of excellence set by previous students. A careful analysis of the accomplishments of this year shows that this studentbody has met the challenge in full measure. In many areas of endeavor, we have excelled beyond my expectations.

I sincerely hope it means as much to each student to be a "Caveman" as it does to me. I have come to love this great school and studentbody very much in the two years I have been principal. I have many opportunities to compare our school with others. These comparisons always make me grateful to be associated with this fine studentbody and staff.

I congratulate our Seniors especially for their leadership and for the maturity they have shown. I also wish each of them well as they graduate and urge them to continue to take pride in having been a student at American Fork High School.

I look forward to next school year with great anticipation.

Sincerely,
Con H. Brady
Principal

I am proud to be associated with American Fork High School. In my estimation, a person would have to go a long way to find a studentbody more dedicated to achieving in all areas—scholarship, sports, music, speech, and drama, or any other worthwhile activity, than the students at A. F. High. I congratulate the students for past achievements and exhort them to continue their good work in the future. I am very glad to be a part of American Fork High.

Sincerely,
Elmo H. Hansen
Assistant Principal

Sitting: Mabel Hansen. Standing: Margaret Sykes.

The counselors were the problem solvers of the school. Students went to these three people with problems of all kinds. They helped Seniors toward their future life and registered the Sophomores and Juniors for the coming year.

The secretaries were always ready with a friendly smile and a desire to help. With the installation of the candy machines these two ladies were always swamped with requests for change, but they were always friendly and pleasant.

Staff Made Life Easier

The cooks offered us a meal at a price we could afford. These meals were good and even though we complained, we realized that there are few other places where we can buy a complete meal for only thirty cents.

The custodians provided us with a clean place in which to spend six hours. They always had a ready smile and were willing to help. The job of cleaning up after eight hundred students is a big and thankless one.

To complete the trio were the bus drivers. These men conveyed us to and from school and on many field trips.

This group of dedicated people provided us with a pleasant environment in which to learn.

Studentbody

The studentbody is the school, without them there would be no school and no activities. We have really been active this year. We have supported our teams, clubs, dances, and officers.

The studentbody is comprised of three classes held together by a common love of the school. For a studentbody and a school to be strong it must be united, for a divided studentbody is no school.

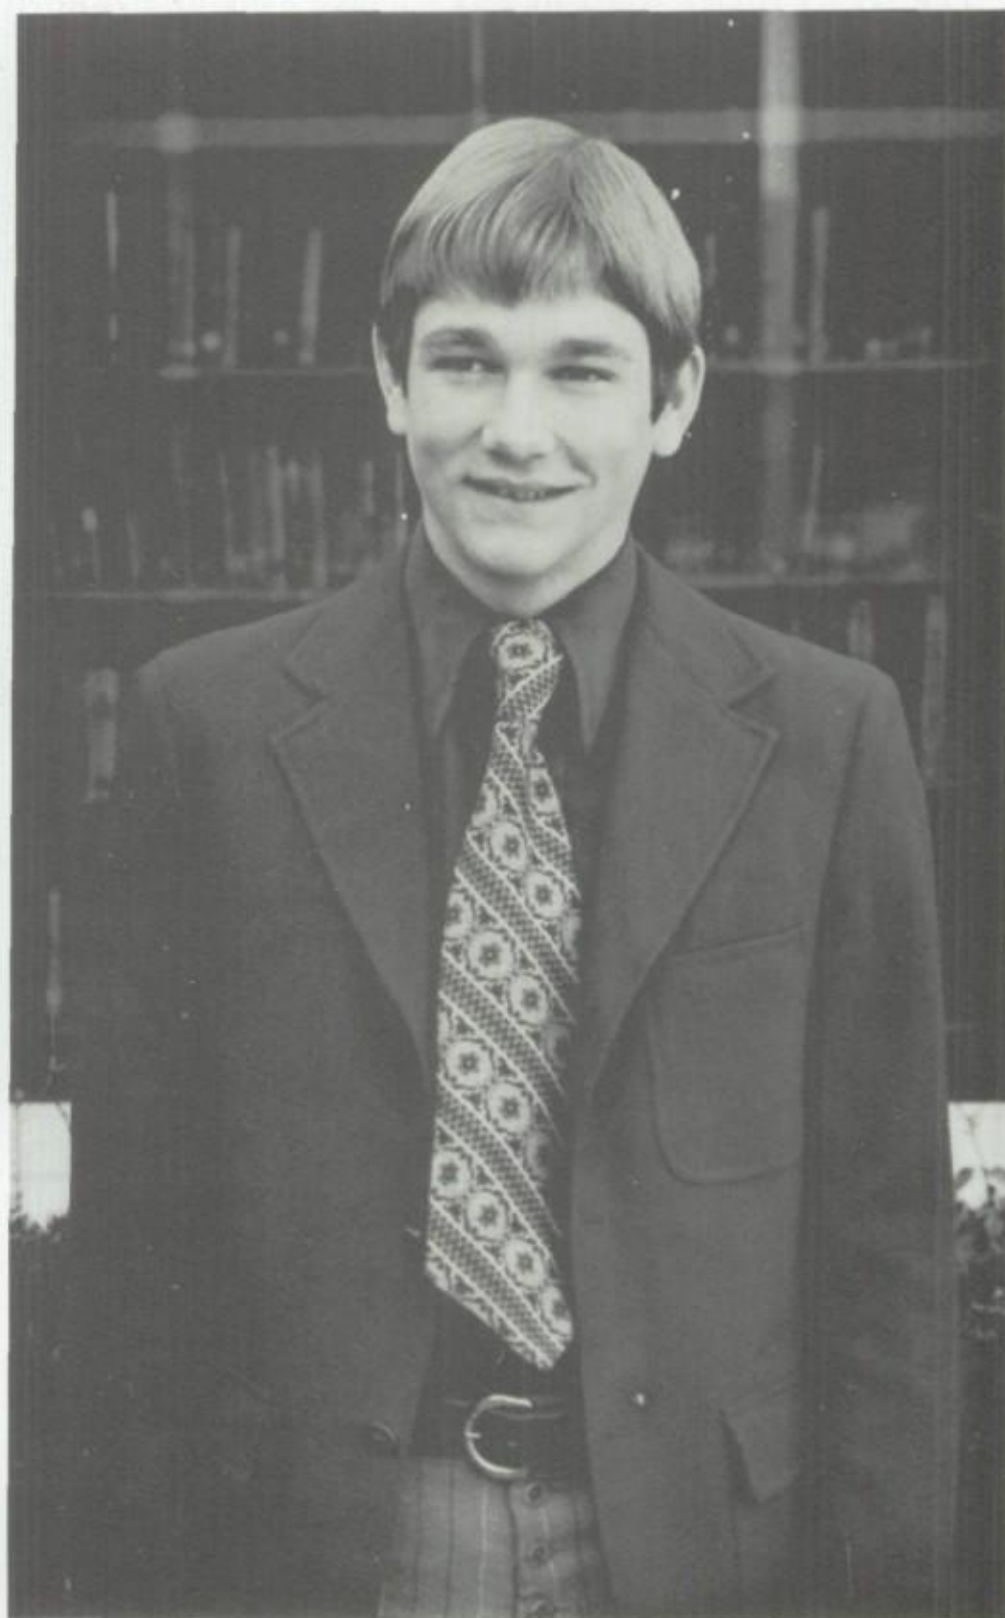

Studentbody Officers Were Great

Serving as your Studentbody President has truly been a rewarding experience for me. Because of the studentbody, activities such as the class dances, Homecoming, Spirit Week and the purchasing of a scoreboard for the football field have all been very successful. By giving your support we have found what can be accomplished by working together in a united effort.

May I wish you success and happiness in the future and I thank you for your support.

My main job as Vice-President was to take charge if Allen wasn't able to be at the meetings. I was also in charge of the sportsmanship competition of the school. The Vice-President also needs to help the Business Manager with Dances and other jobs.

Jane Taylor, secretary; Gwenn Johnson, historian.

The Executive Council also consists of Jane Taylor, secretary; Gwenn Johnson, historian; Linda Gauger, program chairman; and Brent Shelby, business manager.

As secretary, Jane has written home room discussions, sent out monthly calendars to teachers and various interested groups, and keeps up correspondence with other schools. Gwenn, as historian, has assisted Jane in her work, and has also compiled a history of the activities at American Fork. Linda, program chairman, has been in charge of directing and writing the assemblies presented before the studentbody. Brent, as business manager, was responsible for various dances and the raising and lowering of the flag. He also had the job of keeping the marquee up to date.

The Student Council functions as a miniature House of Representatives for the studentbody. These students are elected by their home rooms to represent them in the governing of the school. Many things were discussed in student council. At times we discussed slacks for girl's school dress, a score clock for football season and sponsoring different dances.

The success or failure of this program depends upon the willingness of the studentbody to get involved in the problems and projects of the school.

Patriotism, Theme Of Boys' and Girls' State

Boys' State purports "to educate our youth in the duties, privileges, rights, and responsibilities of American Citizenship." It is wholly a plan for training in the practical aspects of government. It is functional in that applications of the principles of democratic government are made in every possible way. The Constitution and the statutes of the State of Utah are the patterns from which the fundamental law of The American Legion Boys' State has been developed. Boys' State should be thought of as being a mythical 51st State with a constitution, statutes and ordinances constructed by its citizens to govern themselves.

Girls' State was one of the most interesting and rewarding weeks of my life. All of us have a definite part in the future of our country because we will have the opportunity to vote in the next few years. We need to understand our duties as citizens of the United States. At Girls' State we learned the proper city, county, and state governmental procedures and how to put them to use. At the end of our week at Girls' State we had gained a greater feeling of dedication and respect for our country and its flag.

Cheering us on to victory, our cheerleaders were dedicated and determined to do their job. These girls were judged by impartial judges and picked by the studentbody. Although many times the odds were against us, we pulled through with an easy victory because of enthusiastic cheerleaders and studentbody. These cheerleaders spent their extra time preparing posters and making new skits or yells to spur the students on. We owe a lot to our cheerleaders this year. They've done their best to make the 1970-71 school year the best year ever.

Students Were Quizzed

The Young Americans, advised by Willard Devitt, beat Payson and lost by a close margin to Bear River. These students were quizzed in the areas of English, science, history, and math. These students also participated in High School Challenge. In this bowl they beat West, Cyprus, and Lehi High School and are so far undefeated. They will meet the other undefeated schools later in the season.

Three boys and three girls competed against each other in the Inquiring Editor Program Saturday, April 3rd. These contestants read and studied the Tribune Newspaper for one week, then they were quizzed on the pictures, editorial cartoons, comics, quotes and news stories appearing that week. Their advisors are Davis Knight and Tom Crittenden.

This group of students was selected to go to State in Forensics. It was here that they participated in many different fields such as Legislative Forum, Oratory, Radio Speaking and many other areas of public speaking. Although no one placed, our school was well represented. These people did a very good job and made a grand showing for our school.

Students Were Rewarded

Jim Bills

One student from each high school in Utah met at Camp Williams and went to classes concerning government and military strengths. During the week stay the students also had many recreational activities which included fighting a large brush fire in the Oquirrh Foothills.

I went to New York as representative of the Utah Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America. Seventeen girls represented Utah at this convention. The convention was held in July of 1970. The theme of the convention was "Dare of the Decade." It was held in the New York Hilton. Members of FHA from each state in the United States attended. After the convention the members of the Utah delegation went to Washington D.C. for a tour. We stayed there four days and visited such places as the Capitol, Washington Monument, and Arlington Cemetery. The entire trip was fun and educational.

The honor students were those students who had enough perseverance and initiative to maintain a grade point average of 3.67 or higher over the course of seven semesters. From this group of thirty-eight seniors, six were chosen to be representative students for graduation ceremonies.

Sterling Scholars Enter Competition

The Sterling Scholars are chosen by the different departments on the basis of outstanding achievements. In the semi-finals the students presented portfolios and had personal interviews with judges. On the basis of this judging four students were chosen to participate in the final competition. These four were: Jay L. Beck in Music, JaNene Spencer in Business, Linda Hall in Homemaking, and Paul Terry in General Scholarship.

These finalists had a chance of winning cash prizes and scholarships.

Bruce Bowen

Bruce has served in many leadership positions during his high school years. This year he served as Senior Class president and he was a member of the National Honor Society. He was also a member of the football and basketball teams.

Gwenn Johnson

Gwenn has gained many honors in her high school years. As a Sophomore she served as the Sophomore Class Secretary. This year she served as Studentbody Historian. She has also participated in Debate, Extemp and Oratory. She was a member of the National Honor Society and Pep Club.

Kirk Magleby

Kirk has accomplished many things in many different areas. He was National Honor Society President, National Merit Finalist and a Sterling Scholar in the area of Science. He was active in Debate and Forensics and was a member of Young Americans and High School Challenge.

Patricia Sykes

Patricia has had a very active high school career. She was a member of the high school band and a member of the pep club. This year she was the editor of the Creative Writing magazine, a member of the Drama Club, Future Homemakers of America, National Honor Society and Future Physicians Club.

Royce Shelley

Royce has attained many accomplishments in high school. He was a Sterling Scholar nominee in mathematics. He recently presented a math paper at the Intermountain Junior Science and Humanities Symposium at the University of Utah. He is presently serving as president of the Spanish Club and vice president of the National Honor Society.

Jane Taylor

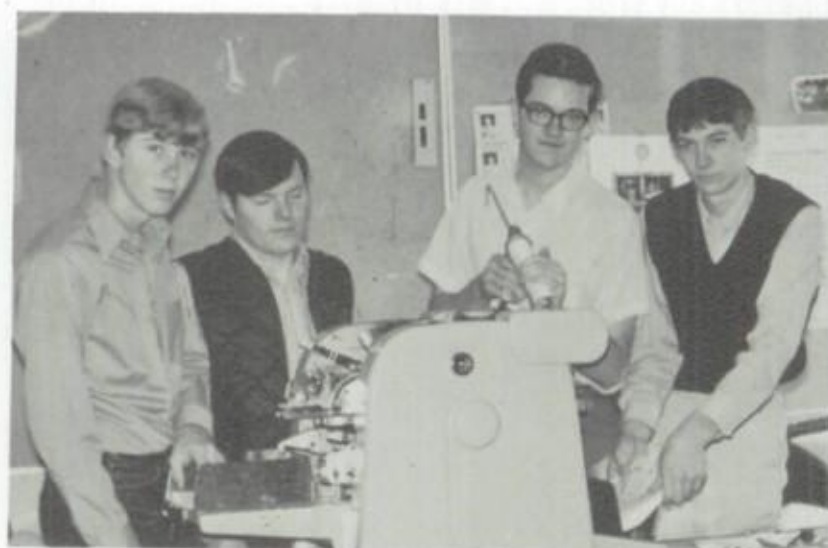

Jane has achieved many leadership positions during her high school years. As a Sophomore she was the class program chairman. As a Junior she served as Pep Club Vice-President. This year she served as the Studentbody Secretary. She was also active in Forensics, participating in contemp., debate, and oratory, and a member of the National Honor Society.

The "Forkaster" in past years has received honors that few other high school papers can boast of. This year has been no exception. Our paper has the right mixture of news, editorial comments and humor.

Staff members were probably the busiest students in the school first period. Journalism incorporated the talents of several classes. They needed the writing skills of the Creative Writing class, the energy of a gym class and the finger dexterity of the Art class. Students looked forward to Friday afternoons when the paper was distributed, and read it with relish.

The Journalism Staff worked long hours during and after school, and put out one of the best high school papers in the state.

The Creative Writing class had some of the top writing talents of the school. Students learned the skills of good writing techniques. The classes were awakened to many of the small things in life, objects that hitherto were seldom noticed by people. Mrs. Vanda Castleberry, advisor, had students read good literature, poetry and short plays to see the different writing techniques of the great writers. Students had fun publishing and assembling the Glyphs magazine, which was called "Collage."

Yearbook Staff Records History Of

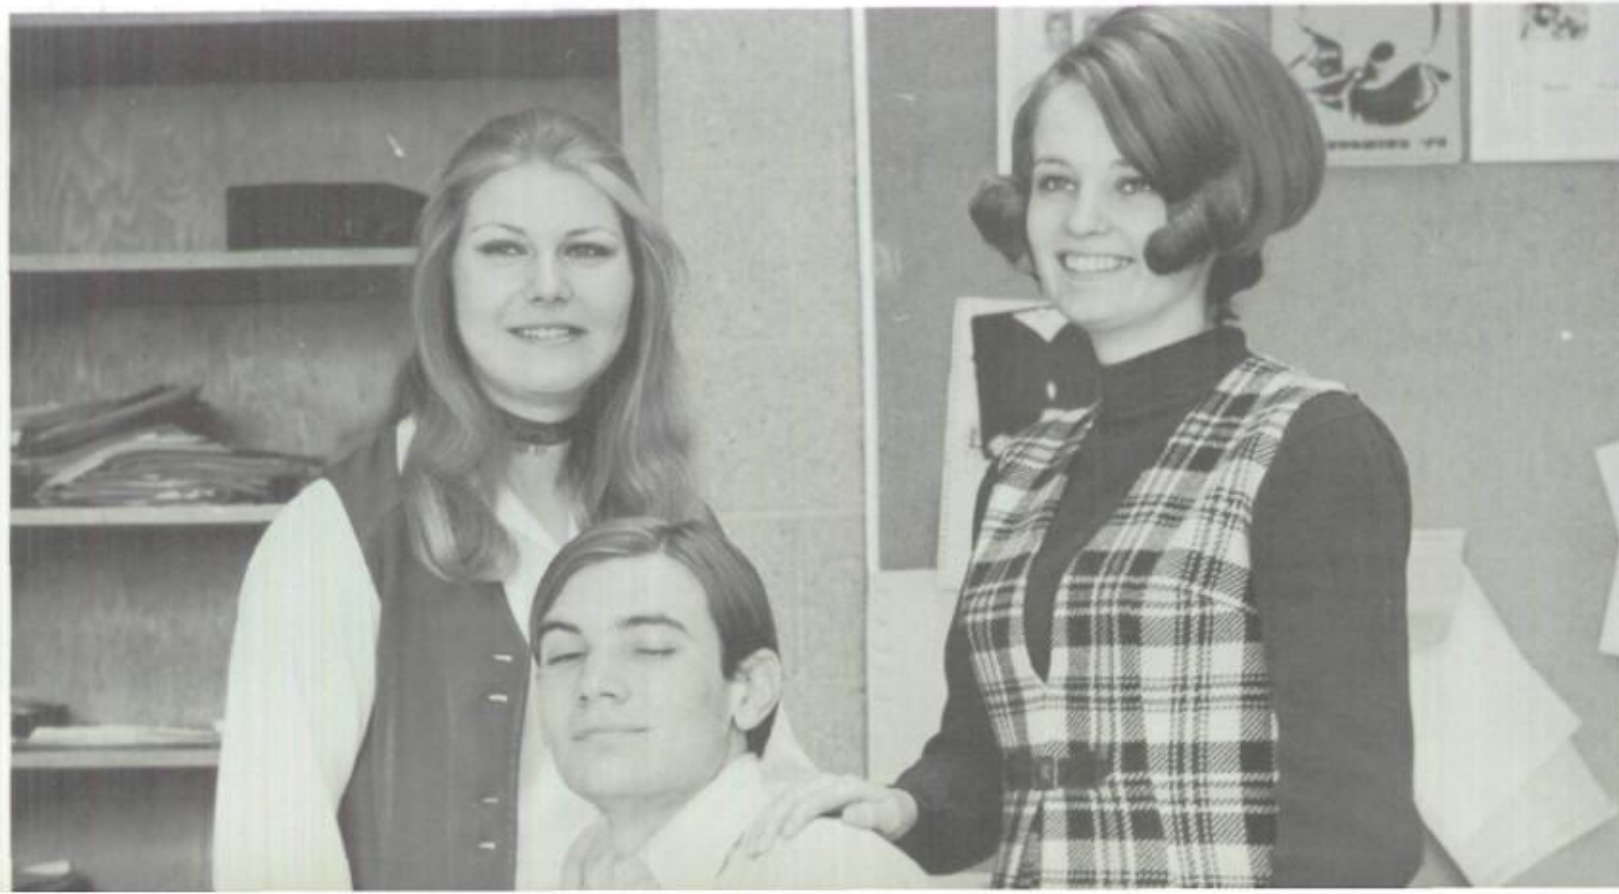

Being on a yearbook staff is a tireless and often thankless job. Only one hour during school is involved but countless hours, before and after school, are behind the book.

This year we would like to give special thanks to Devey's for the loan of the tuxedos for the Senior boys' pictures.

We chose "Kaleidoscope of Faces" for this year's theme, because we all felt that this represents our high school and its students.

The class of '70-'71 was a class of workers and achievers. We achieved many goals and did many things during our brief stay in school.

As Sophomores we had a very successful Sophomore Slide with the theme song, "You Showed Me."

As Juniors there was a chance to grow and achieve even more. We achieved in many different areas and won many contests. During this year the exciting Junior Prom was held, where the Juniors danced to the theme song "Almost There."

Our Senior year was an exciting time. Some Seniors welcomed graduation day with gladness, while others with nostalgia. As seniors we started many new fads and made many records. The Senior Hop, "Secret Love," was a huge success.

This year was a time of feeling old and wise. It was a time of looking forward with enthusiasm and looking back with pride and regret.

Juniors Were Spirited...

The Junior Prom was the biggest dance of the year. The decorations were elegant and it was a huge success.

We were led by marvelous officers, they did their best to make the greatest year ever and to lead us to greater enthusiasm.

We've had a good year and we are glad to have been a part of the great Junior class. A good word to describe our class is enthusiastic. We put one hundred and ten percent into all of our endeavors and activities.

We're glad to have been Juniors but we are looking forward to when we will become Mighty Seniors. We will strive to work together, promote enthusiasm, and make 1971-'72 the greatest year yet.

We came from the Junior High, young, energetic, hoping to learn a lot of new things and to become a part of American Fork High School. Compared to the Juniors and Seniors, we look small, but we hope to become like them.

We took part in school clubs, activities, sports and assemblies. We elected a great set of class officers who presented a fantastic Sophomore Slide with the theme of "Hello, It's Me." We also helped arouse spirit and enthusiasm at pep assemblies and sports events.

We have had a fun and successful year and we are looking forward to our year as Juniors.

In all things there is beauty.
The beauty of Sorrow is Joy,
The beauty of Dark is Light.
And so it is
That the beauty of death is Birth.

Autrey Brothers Incorporated

After seniors graduate, they look back upon graduation night with nostalgia. They realize that this was the turning point of their lives.

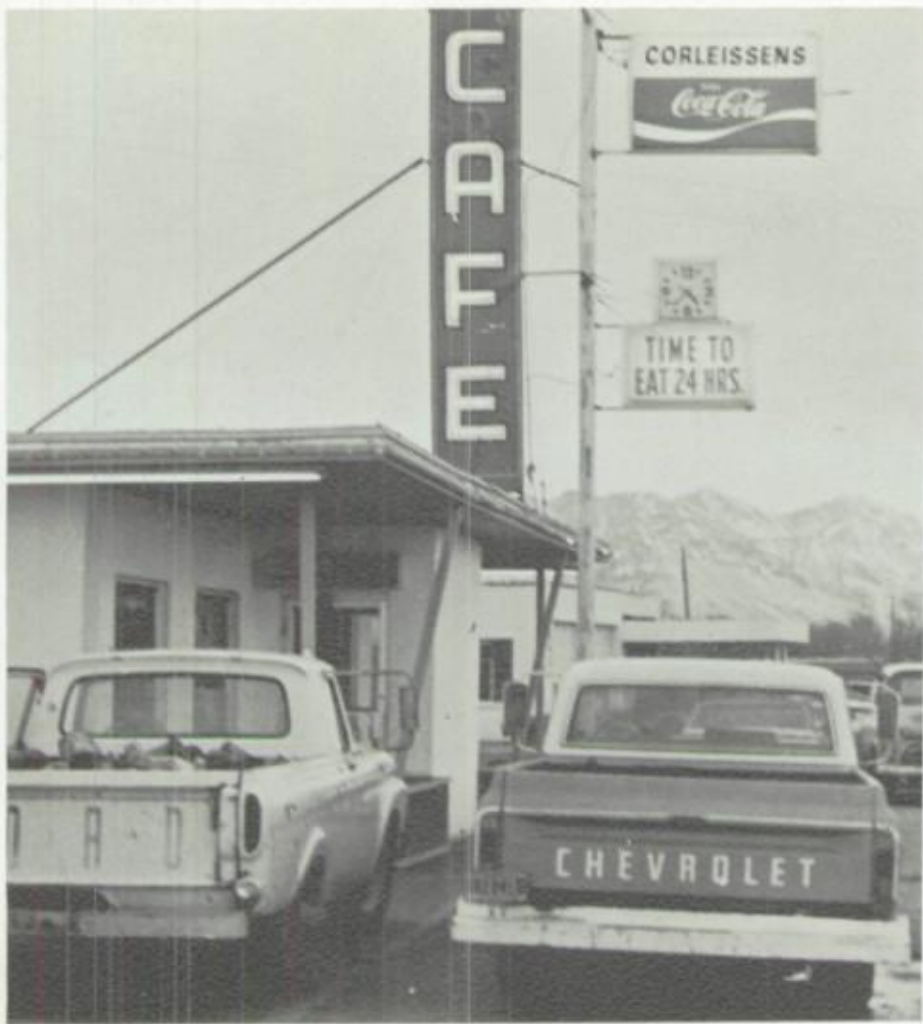

Before this time they were happy-go-lucky and care-free members of the school. But after this one night, many of their classmates will never be seen again. Their carefree life is gone and they must make important decisions regarding their futures.

It's no wonder that these seniors have such fond memories of graduation. After all, this was the last time they were members of their high school.

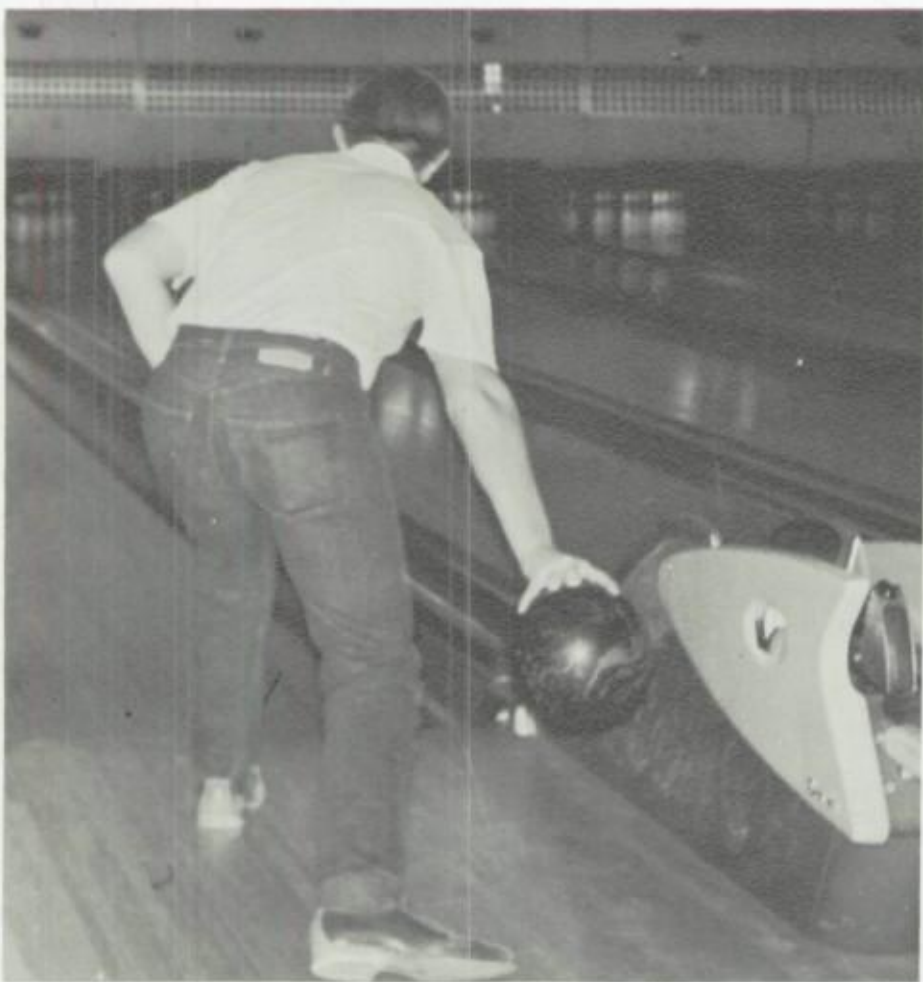

Many of you will graduate soon and we want you to have the best possible memories of graduation. AUTREY BROTHERS INCORPORATED at 4530 South 2995 East in Salt Lake City has caps and gowns to make this occasion unforgettable and your memories lasting.

This year's American was titled "Kaleidoscope of Faces," because that is high school. We enter for a brief three years and during this time we see faces, familiar and otherwise, coming and going, laughing and crying, shouting and whispering. We grow to love the school and even more important the people in it.

To thank all those responsible for this book would be impossible, but I do owe a big thanks to my staff. But most important a thanks to you the studentbody, for without you this book would not have been possible.

So now the year is ending and I am growing a bit reluctant to leave high school and my friends. Yet I am eager to meet life's future challenges. I think of graduation not as the end, but instead the beginning.
